3. Why do you think men (particularly) have a difficult time forming these deep, platonic, love-friendship like we see in David and Jonathan?
4. To the women in the group: what struggles have you had in finding these deep friendship, as well?
5. To the single people in the group: what do friendships mean to you, and how have you developed them out in your life that might be different than if you were married?
6. How would you advise someone who want a friend, but doesn't know how to find one?
7. What can someone do if they are pursuing a friendship, but they don't feel like that person is reciprocating their pursuit?
