QUESTIONS:

1. Have someone in your group summarize chapter 31.
Have someone else in your group summarize the main points of the sermon.
2. Do you think Jonathan's life was tragic? If so, why? If not, why not?
3. Whether you have kids or not, how have you thought through leaving a legacy for your family (parents, children, siblings, etc.)?
4. What are some practical ways you can pray over people in your lives (family or otherwise)?
5. Pastor Chris said, "Who you are in life, will be who you are at your death." Do you agree or disagree? Why?
6. What are some things that you say you value highly, but your lifestyle may not evidence to be true?
7. It's never too late to start your legacy. What are some practical ways you can start working on your legacy for the futures of those around you?
